CHICAGO, TUESDAY, MAY 31, 1898.

IMP'S MEMORIAL HANDICAP.

There was a holiday crowd at Harlem. It filled the grand stand, patronized the ring often in a small way, shouted itself hoarse over Imp's victory in the Memorial Handicap and devoured everything—all the edibles displayed. It was as usual—a good-natured and orderly gathering.

The track was rough and dry on the surface, but soft and tiring in substance. Throughout the afternoon it dried steadily. The first and last races were at three-quarters. The opening event was run in 1:20 and the closing in 1:17.

The feature of the card was the Memorial Handicap, at 8 furlongs, fifth on the card. After the third race the track was worked with light harrows and drags. Only Imp, Dr. Sheppard and Goodrich started. The public played the mare at odds on. Fred Foster backed his horse and a few supported the proposition that Goodrich ought to win with only 100 pounds on his back. The Foster party insisted that Imp could not handle 118 pounds and beat Dr. Sheppard with 109 pounds up.

But she carried her impost with ease and grace and made the big colt appear insignificant. Goodrich's performance was shabby. When the barrier went up Dr. Sheppard, on the inside, and the mare went away racing. Martin was evidently trying to keep the track and force the pace to an extent that would make the weight tell. They ran the first sixteenth head and head and then the mare, with amazing ease, glided by the big fellow.

At the end of a furlong, traversed in 12 seconds, she led an open length, and Goodrich was two open lengths back of Sheppard. Along the back stretch Caywood had Imp under a steady pull, and yet she increased her advantage a length before reaching the upper turn. Meanwhile Goodrich had gained slightly on Sheppard. Half around the turn a cheer arose from Sheppard's following. He had drawn away from Goodrich and was closing on Imp. Then followed a few moments of suppressed excitement, after which a mighty roar resounded from the grand stand and quarter stretch. Caywood had loosened his rein, and the mare was increasing her lead at every stride. Straightening for home Sheppard was in trouble and Goodrich beaten off. Coming down the home stretch Caywood took his mare in hand again and let her gallop to the stand, while he turned in his saddle and laughed at Martin's unavailing efforts to force Sheppard to greater speed. Imp finished apparently fresh as she started, while both Sheppard and Goodrich pulled up thoroughly exhausted.

The first race should have been won by Nellie Baker, but "Long Shot" Smith, believing he had the race won, eased his mount after getting into the stretch, enabling "Skeets" Martin to bring up the favorite, Arrezzo, and land him a winner of a driving finish, by a nose.

Twelve started in the second race. When straightened for the final struggle, ten were closely bunched and the other two were in striking distance. Tenole appeared to be the winner when the bunch began to dissolve, but Princess overhauled and beat him on the post. It was the best contended race of the meeting.

Moncreith, backed from 3 to 8 to 5, outfinished the field in the third race. When the final contest appeared to be between Morte Fosse and Deerfoot, Caywood brought up Moncreith and won by nearly a length. It was a well-timed finish. Morte Fosse promised to run over Deerfoot, but the latter was the gamer and got second place by a nose.

"Col." Roller was good. His Arrezzo won the first keenly, and Mouzeltoff raced Buena Ventura to pieces and landed the fourth event like a real lady. Richard J. tow-roped his lot and took the sixth and the seventh fell to Graziella. The Devil made an astonishing finish.

M. C. Hubbell, superintendent of Woodlands—Barney Schreiber's breeding establishment—came up from St. Louis Sunday morning with the 2-year-olds Miss Marion and Havel. Miss Marion, winner of the Debutante Stakes at St. Louis, arrived in good condition. She will be a starter for the Petite Stakes Wednesday. Dick Williams, the stable's competent trainer, will be here to-day to look after her. H. Martin, through the courtesy of Tom Ryan, has been engaged to ride the filly in the race.

Nick Hall's 2-year-olds Canace and Sevens and the jumper Gov. Budd arrived at Harlem yesterday morning from San Francisco. The horses left Oakland last Wednesday evening.

The horses of Dan Honig and Frank Phillips came on the same train. They are quartered at Hawthorne. In Honig's lot were Zamar II., Elsmore, Zacatosa, Oraibee, Ed Gartland, Salisbury II., Amoltepec. Frank Phillips brought Judge Stouffer and Oscuro.

Bookmaker Bob Smith arrived from the Pacific Coast yesterday. His horses are turned out in California. He stopped a day at Sacramento. W. B. Jennings will leave Sacramento June 5 with a selected string, which will include that good 3-year-old filly Brier Sweet, Sombre, Tripping, Maxello and Maximo.

Jockey J. Morgan has been engaged to ride for Marcus Daly for a term of six months, beginning June 20. He will start for Montana within a few days.

It is given out from inside circles that betting at Harlem will be continued on the plan now in operation until the close of the meeting.

Pat Dunne's good horse Salvable has a swelling between his right hind pastern and heel. He is not lame, but has been stopped in his work and under any circumstance is not likely to race again for a month.

THOS. J. GALLAGHER.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Handspring will be prepared for fall racing by Charles T. Patterson at the Cincinnati tracks, and if he stands training—as it is generally believed he will—he will be shipped east in the summer to take part in the fall handicaps. Major Dangerfield has worked wonders with Handspring since his sojourn at Castleton, and it would not be at all surprising to see this grand horse yet show the best form of his turf career.—Thoroughbred Record.

The London Sporting Times aptly says: "Has it ever occurred before, we wonder, that a horse has run in a race on Saturday and on the following Tuesday one of his sons was returned a winner? This was the case with Dobbins, of whose stock we made very favorable mention when we saw them at Boro Green last spring. Dobbins with his flowing mane, and tail reaching to the ground, was a sight. The old fellow, however, showed a lot of speed, and his son Knickerbocker is evidently smarter."—Spirit of The Times.

Three of the progeny of Order won stake races for their fortunate owners last week. Ornament taking in the Brooklyn Handicap, Ornamental the Gaiety Stakes at Morris Park and Orderlette the Sapphire Stakes at Oakley.

Up to and including Saturday Huffman & Co. were first among winning owners at St. Louis with Barney Schreiber a good second. Those with over $1,000 to their credit are: Huffman & Co., $3,265; Barney Schreiber, $2,200; Schorr & Son, $2,030; Foster Bros., $1,800; W. W. Darden, $1,722; J. H. Payne & Co., $1,550; H. E. Leigh, $1,095, and Thos. Hurns, $1,075.

Winner—Br. c. by Spendthrift—Llandrino. Post 10 minutes. Start fair. Won handily. Frohsinn was best today. He closed strong and evidently likes a route. Extreme finished gamely. Dr Parker was galloping the first part and looked like a sure winner. He was badly handled. Is promising and a grand looker. Amorita, under a poor ride, took the long route and finished fast. Alonet eased at the end; showed speed. Hopkins is apparently of no account. Lawgiver is a grand looker. He requires strong handling and was short.

Scratched—Mr Phinzy, 110; Dr Vaughan, 110; Fulminate, 107; Queen Badge, 107.

Overweights—Extreme, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. h. 5, by Fonso—Workmate. Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily. Ben Eder was easily the best. Is in his best form and looks it. Watch him. Mann, favored by the going, ran surprisingly well and closed like a flash at the end. Alvarado belongs in a lower class. He quit badly the last quarter. Johnny lost all chance the first quarter but was coming at the end. He wants a route and a hustling ride. He got neither to-day. Is uncertain. Bealey was outclassed.

Scratched—Ben Ronald, 120.

Overweights—Howard Mann, 3 pounds.

Winner—Ch. f. by His Highness—Nettie. Post 15 minutes. Start fair. Won easily. Degree, lucky and perfectly handled, was undoubtedly the best. She was eased up at end. Meddlesome is a fine looker. Was off poorly, took the long route and closed game and strong. Watch her. Loiter was poorly handled and ran astonishingly well under the circumstances. Saccharine, eased up at the end, showed a fine burst of speed. Was shut off on the stretch turn. Miriam was probably short and was eased at the end. She was hemmed in on the rail at the stretch turn. Is a good looker. Pride is a bad actor and ran her race at the post. She was killed off chasing Degree and quit the last eighth. The last four were eased up in the stretch.

Scratched—Halo, 112; Lady Onward, 112; Ramlet, 112.

Winner—Ch. c. by Silver Fox—Asteria. Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won handily. It was a remarkable race from a time standpoint. Fox was easily the best. The going suited him. He always requires a strong jockey. Mirthful showed grand form. Was galloping the first seven-eighths, but was outrun last quarter. Mont d'Or lay away and closed some ground at the end. He ran his race and the going suited him. Traverser was short and overweighted. He can do better. He set a terrific pace and was pulled up the last quarter.

"I HAVE STUDIED YOUR BOOK, 'HORSE RACING, OR THE ART OF MAKING MONEY AT THE RACE TRACK' and I don't see that there is any room for criticism, for I think that anyone who has played the races can't help but see that every word is true. I think there is more to be learned in 15 minutes reading it than any ordinary man could learn in as many years by simply following the races," writes an ardent admirer of this handsome and sensible little book, which is issued free to readers of DAILY RACING FORM on application to the publishers, A. F. Withe & Co., 720 Omaha Building, Chicago, Ill. Everyone interested in the noble sport should read it.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Discussing the recent sale of Galtee More for £21,000 the London Sportsman says:

"The sale of Galtee More calls to mind other instances in which celebrated thoroughbreds have changed hands for extraordinarily big amounts. The record is held by Ormonde, who, after being disposed of by the Duke of Westminster to Senor Boucou for £12,000, passed into the possession of the American gentleman, Mr. Macdonough, for no less than $150,000 (£31,250). The late Baron de Hirsch gave Sir Frederic Johnstone £15,000 for Matchbox (with contingencies), and the horse was subsequently sold to the Austrian Government for £18,000. Common, after his victory in the St. Leger, was purchased for £15,000 by Sir J. Blundell Maple; the celebrated stallion Blair Athol was sold for 12,500 guineas in 1872, and another historic deal was that in connection with Doncaster, who, after winning the Alexandra Plate at Ascot in 1875, was parted with by Mr. James Merry for £10,000 to Mr. R. Peck, who subsequently resold the horse for £14,000 to the Duke of Westminster. This was an unprecedented sum in those days, but later years have familiarized us with transactions of much greater magnitude, though it will probably be a long time ere the sum paid in connection with Ormonde will be equaled or surpassed. These, of course, were all private deals, but taking the instances where horses have been disposed of by public auction, it may be mentioned that St. Blaise (the Derby winner of 1883) was sold for £20,000 at the disposal of Mr. A. Belmont's stud, in New York, toward the end of 1891; and another notable case is that of Meddler, who, as a 3-year-old, went for 14,500 guineas at Newmarket in 1893."

Galtee More was sold with his engagements, and it is intended for him to fill them if he goes on well before being retired to the stud in Russia.

Winner—B. h, 5, by Sir Dixon—Vassar.
Off at first break to a fair start. Won pulled up. Sir Vassar outclassed his field. He is a crackjack hurdler. Peirsa likes a shorter route. Is in fine form and made no mistakes. He ran his race. Valorous finished game under the whip. Is good and showed fine form for him. Decapod fell out early. Likes the field best and is very good. He closed a big gap at the end. The others are of no account.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Aretino—Libbie L.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won in the hardest kind of a drive. All were busy at the finish. Arrezzo was well handled. He is heavy headed and a loafer, and Martin had to hustle him all the way. It looked at the head of the stretch as though Nellie Baker would win, but she wobbled a trifle when the pinch came. Was away flying and had no excuses. Hosi ran a bad race. It would not do at all. Dixie Lee was coming strong at the end. Blue Jacket was tiring. Theresa H seems to be of no present account.

Winner—Ch. f. 4, by Prince Royal—Lonely.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third and fourth driving also. Lone Princess won through the action of a nod. The pair were nose and nose the last seventy yards. The Princess ran a cracking good race. It was far above the notch. She was under a drive the last three furlongs. The ride on her was good, too. Tenole is a consistent performer. The field was well bunched on the stretch turn. The Tory was outrun the first part of it. Sloan was at work on him all the way. Chikuita II and Olivia L both made up ground at the end. Lucy Belle had no excuses. She was short and stopped badly. Panout has bad legs and they hurt him. He pulled up a trifle lame. It was a good race.
Scratched—Whirmantiline, 94; Incetatus, 102.
Overweights—Panout, 3 pounds; Tenole, 2; Chikuita II, 2.

Winner—Br. c. 4, by Jim Gore—Bagpipes.
Off at first break to a good start. First four driving hard. Moncreith was a good horse and well ridden. Caywood picked the best going and waited patiently with him. Deerfoot is underrated. He is a shifty horse under light weight. Rutter could not do Morte Fonse justice. He was more tired than the horse when the pinch came. Albertvale suffered from bad handling. He was in the deep going next the rail all the way and naturally stopped at the end. Oakley had some speed. The race was a slow one. Mr. Easton made up a lot of ground through the stretch. Pete Kitchen ran a fair race.
Scratched—Dorothy III, 105.

Winner—B. f. by Lord Hartington—Lucetto.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily after an early drive. Mouzeltoff's race was a sharp form reversal. She broke away well and had plenty of early speed, but swerved a trifle at the head of the stretch. Nancy Seitz ran a fair race. She was interfered with in the spread of the field at the head of the stretch. Babe Robertson finished with a rush. She had bad racing luck early and, but for it, judging from the way she finished, would have been a contender. Buena Ventura is cowardly. She swerved clear across the track in the stretch. Mazie V tired early. Lucy Blazes ran a poor race and Irene F a good one.
Scratched—Espionage, 109.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily up. Imp just played with her field. She ran Dr. Sheppard into submission the first three furlongs. The filly is a speed marvel and has a lot of class. Dr. Sheppard ran his race. Martin rode him well. Goodrich was outclassed and was never within striking distance.
Scratched—Salvage, 122; Carnero, 112; Macy, 114; Lieber Karl, 110; Lobengula, 101; Paul Griggs, 108; Ramiro II, 100; Frank Thompson, 100.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Morello—Bonnie Leaf.
Post 12 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; it was a keen drive for the place. Richard J got away flying and was never in trouble. This was a much better performance than his last. He is a most inconsistent performer. Tom Collins had a lot of speed, but seemed short. He was stopping and Meddler coming at the finish. The latter was short on speed. Hill whipped him away from the post and was at him nearly all the way. Alabaster had no speed at all. Throw his race out.
Scratched—Don't Skip Me, 102; Pink Coat, 110.

Winner—Ch. f. 3, by Aintree—Quick.
Post 15 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; the next three were driving hard. Graziella was the best as the race was run. She was most saved at the post and got away well in motion. She seems to be back to her two-year-old form. Watch Marcato. He had a lot of speed but was short and Graziella was driving to beat him on the stretch turn. The Devil finished with a rush. He did not seem to have a possible chance in the back stretch. Lord Fairfax acted badly at the post. He is game and was under a drive all the way. Pope Leo was running easily on the far turn but collapsed when the pinch came.

Winner—B. f. by Bishop—Albatross.
Post 11 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second driving hard. Lucinda B II is hardly bridled. She is a fair filly and closed strong. Arline C got a wretched ride. Good Hope was off badly. Celeste d'Or had plenty of speed. Ollie S's girth broke and the boy was kept busy holding on.
Scratched—Ruby Riley, 108; Alice Coffin, 98; Ina Goddard, 98.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Ben Ali—Shasta.
Post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won in a hard drive; second also driving. Osric II was the best. The going was not to his liking and he tired badly. He was galloping the first mile. On a hard track he would have beaten his field easily. Tony Honing finished with great courage. Maddalo had early speed and hung on better than usual. Traveler ran an easy race.

Post 19 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Timemaker is not partial to weight. Abuse is. He was stopping, though, at the finish. Harry Duke was outpaced from the start. The long races he has been in lately have probably dulled his speed. Gibraltar had a lot of speed. The race should help him. Sweet William was outclassed. Marzella was pumped out chasing Abuse.
